1. Read the extract given below and answer the questions :

Far below Bowed the Ganga, quick and clear,
above frowned the jutting bank.

Hill dark with the woods and scarred with the torrents were gathered around.

Govinda, the great teacher, sat on the rock
reading scriptures,

A-85/BEGLA-137

P. T. O.

When Raghunath, his disciple, proud of his wealth came and bowed to him and said, "I have bought my poor wealth, unworthy of thy acceptance."

Thus saying, he displayed before the teacher a pair of gold bangles studded with costly gems and emeralds.

The master took up one of them, twirling it round his finger, and the stones darted shafts of light.

Suddenly it slipped from his hand and rolled down the bank into the water.

Name of the poem : Govinda's Disciple

By : Rabindranath Tagore
